-Report-

The Department of Commerce with Information Technology organized a special lecture on “Entrepreneurial Mindset” on July 18th, 2025. Mr. Jay Tanna, a renowned Skill Trainer from Skill Workshop, was the resource person. The session aimed to nurture creativity, innovation, and business thinking among students. Mr. Jay delivered an engaging and insightful talk, emphasizing the importance of cultivating the right mindset for entrepreneurship. He highlighted key traits such as risk-taking, adaptability, and the ability to solve real-world problems—qualities essential for any aspiring entrepreneur. He further stressed the need to recognize everyday challenges as opportunities to innovate and create viable, income-generating solutions.

The session also focused on the integration of technical skills with an entrepreneurial approach, which Mr. Jay described as the foundation of any successful venture. He guided students through the process of ideation to execution and a solution-driven attitude. As part of the interactive session, Mr. Jay gave problem statements and encouraged students to come up with innovative ideas that could be prototyped. The lecture not only inspired students to think beyond traditional career choices but also instilled the confidence to explore entrepreneurship as a fulfilling and impactful path. The department expressed sincere gratitude to Mr. Jay Tanna and looks forward to more such enriching experiences to foster a spirit of innovation and self-reliance among students. 184 students were benefitted out of this program.
