Item 2 : Inclusion of the following Non-Major Elective Papers for the students admitted from 2024-25 and onwards :

   a) Human Rights
   b) SOGIESC studies
   c) Consumer affairs

Resolution for Item 2

   The BoS would to like to bring kind notice that the following 3 papers, namely,
   a) Human Rights
   b) Women Rights
   c) Consumer Affairs,
were unanimously approved by the BoS held on 11.05.2023 as Non-Major Elective papers for the students admitted during the Academic Year 2023-2024 and onwards.

   However, the College proposed a new template to the introduction of the following Non-Major Elective papers :

   a) Human Rights
   b) SOGIESC studies
   c) Consumer affairs

   After detailed discussion, the members of BoS, unanimously decided not recommended the inclusion of SOGIESC studies paper for the following reasons :
     i) The detailed content of the syllabus has not provided at the time of BoS Meeting.

ii) Moreover the introduction of SOGIESC paper which is not relevant to the scope of the programme.

iii) No such papers are introduced by any of the Colleges / Universities in the Course Curriculum in the Region.

Hence, the BoS recommends the following papers as Non-Major Elective Papers for the welfare of the students, from the academic year 2024-25 and onwards:

a) Human Rights
b) Women Rights
c) Consumer Affairs

Item 3 : Approval of Panel of Examiners for the Examinership. (Question Paper Setting, Examiner for Practical Examinations, Examiner for Theory Paper Evaluation)
