PRACTICES MADE TO MAKE THE VILLAGES A PARADIGM

Adopted Village Tour

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Q4RgH4iA1ec>

Kongunadu Arts and Science College has adopted villages to improve the community based services. Adopted village is proved to be the best practice of the college for the focused attention on a particular area for the competent growth. The village from the year of adoption stands for the tremendous growth in a socio-economic status.

Educating the Illiterate:

The literacy rate has been gradually increased after our adoption.

Educating the Illiterate and employing them in our institution:

To empower the educated youths of our adopted village, our college has provided them job opportunities and appointed them in our college.

Employment opportunities given to our adopted village people in our Institution:

To increase the socio-economic upgradation to our adopted village people, substantial number of illiterates has been recruited for our house-keeping.

Conducting Veterinary Camps for the cattle in our adopted village:

Kongunadu Arts and Science College, arranged a 'Veterinary Camp' on 11.02.2019 in Vazhukuparai, Madhukarai union, Coimbatore. Dr. G. Venugopal, Veterinary surgeon, R.S. Puram and his team examined cattle and livestock and suggested the best rearing methods and also distributed veterinary medicines to the farmers for free of cost. The student volunteers involved actively in this camp. More than 50 cattle and livestock got benefitted.

Empowering Uneducated Women:

On 12.11.2017 Kongunadu Arts and Science College distributed free sewing machine to Self Help Group Women of the adopted village Dhanalakshmiipuram. Dr. C.A. Vasuki, Secretary and Director of Kongunadu Arts and Science College has distributed free sewing machine to the SHG women and delivered special address to the empowerment of the SHG. Dr. O.N. Paramasivam, Treasurer of our College and Ortho Specialist of KMCH Hospital has offered the felicitation address.

Hygiene and Sanitation Requirements Especially to Women:

Distribution of sanitary materials to the adopted village people. Eradicating the fear of women about their drunkard husbands and their health-related problems

Creating Awareness on Unhealthy Practices:

Our College conducted an awareness rally on the Dangers of Alcohol by our student volunteers on 13.02.2019 from Dhanalakshmipuram to Vazhukupparai high school with banners, boards and slogans related to this awareness.

PATTA (Ownership of Residence) in the Names of Housewives:

To eliminate the fear and empowering the downtrodden people into a secured livelihood our college has donated residential lands and constructed houses with the partial fund from the government (50% from the college management and 50% from the government) or the adopted village people. The ownership (Patta) has been given in the names of housewives which strengthens the society.

Enhancing proper Livelihood & Elevating the Places of Living:

Construction of new concrete houses and establishing their livelihood as per the panchayat norms including water tank, individual toilets, sewage canals, library and community hall.

Library Building

Improving the Entire Amenities of the Villagers:

Our College installed solar street light to the adopted village Rayagondanur

Construction of Community hall at Dhanalakshmipuram under DRDA (Management):

Our college students helped in the construction of Dr. Ambedkar Community Hall in Vazhukupparai, Madukkarai Union, Coimbatore and successfully completed the pending white wash work in Vazhukupparai High School.

Improving Commutation Facility:

New concrete roads with drainage system has been laid for all the streets of our adopted village.

A new bus route has been arranged with the help of Tamilnadu State Transport Corporation (Route no 18- Gandhipuram to Rayagoundanur)

Ensuring their Proper Home Facility:

A door to door Socio-economic survey was taken regarding hygiene and sanitation from the village and a list was collected regarding the proper usage of toilets and rain water harvesting system.
