Oldage Home visit

A Report

The PG Department of English UA organised a one day visit to Jana Ranjaha Seva Ashram and Oldage Home on 24/09/2017. More than 20 students and 7 staff of the department enthusiastically attended the event.

Every year, the students are taken to either an orphanage or to an old-age home as a part of the department's extension activity. Through this, the department aims to inculcate humanity, humility and charity among the students.

As a token of love and humane gesture, the department contributed 25 kgs of rice and 1 month's stock of groceries for the 20 inhabitants of the home.

Dr. Diwakar Thomas, Associate Professor addressed the inhabitants and instilled compassionate words of confidence. Dr. S.P.Sasi Rekha, HOD, expressed her empathy and encouraging words that lifted their minds. The rest of the attended staff, Mr. J. Athisayaraj Jebakumar, Mr. C.Sakthivel, Mr. S. Sakthivel, Mr. D. Solomon Paul Raj and Mr. David Karunakaran all interacted with the inhabitants.

The students, under the efficient and effective guidance of Mr. J. Athisayaraj Jebakumar staged a humorous drama which brought smiles in those saddened souls. This drama was especially conceived for those old aged people on a short notice. Mr. Naresh of II MA English Literature, played several old melodies, that lifted them higher.

The event successfully and harmoniously came to an end at 4 pm.
