YOUTH RED CROSS

Report on Collection for Communal Harmony

The Youth Red Cross, KASC volunteers collected funds for National Foundation for Communal Harmony for the year 2021-2022. They planned to offer and collect donations from the students and staff of KASC during the first week of November 2021. The YRC student volunteers went to each and every class and explained the importance of "National Foundation for Communal Harmony" to the students. They requested all students and faculties to donate for the same in a sealed collection box. The money collected in the sealed box was opened and counted in the presence of our respected Principal, Dr.M.Lekeshmanaswamy. The collected money was rupees 27,500 (Twenty Seven Thousand Five Hundred Only) which was sent to National Foundation for Communal Harmony, New Delhi -110003 in the form of DD through register post. Dr.N.Senthil Kumar, YRC Programme officer guided students and gave clear direction to the students whenever required.
