

On 20.01.2023, two computers were given to the training center run by the kotha tribes of Tiruchikkady Village, Kothagiri on behalf of the Coimbatore Kongunadu College of Arts and Sciences Tribal Research and Welfare Center and the head of the Computer science and Data Analysis Department, Dr. L. Kathirvel Kumaran conducted a basic computer class for their students. In this event, College Tamil Department Head (Self-Financing Division) Dr. S. Arichandran also attended the event.

On 31.05.2023, on behalf of Kongunadu Tribal Research and Welfare Center, the representatives of Trichikkady tribe in Kothagiri, Nilgiri district visited the village and inspected the functioning of the computers already provided by the college. Under the Tribal Students Computer Literacy Program (Tribal Students Computer Literacy Program) the Head of the Computer science and Data Analysis Department, Dr. L. Kathirvel Kumaran also conducted a class for the students on the parts and working of computer engineering. Students studying in schools and colleges participated and benefited in this event. College Tamil Department Head (Self-Financing Division) Dr. S.. Arichandran also attended the event.

