

Recognized
Kongunadu Arts and Science College (Autonomous), Coimbatore
For
Green Initiative

December 6, 2023, Coimbatore, Yuva YI recognize Kongunadu Arts and Science College (Autonomous), Coimbatore for Green Initiative for outstanding contribution to environmental sustainability. The institutions steadfast commitment to green initiatives has been acknowledged through this prestigious accolade.

Environmental Awareness Week – 2022 was organised at our campus during the last week of September 2022. This week-long event aimed at fostering awareness and action on crucial environmental issues. Various impactful activities, seminars, and educational campaign were conducted, engaging students, faculty, and the local community. Plant sapling were distributed to 50 members of the local community. Through innovative sessions and interactive workshops, participants were educated on sustainable practices, waste reduction, renewable energy, and the importance of biodiversity conservation. Students were engaged in discussions facilitated the exchange of ideas and strategies, empowering attendees to make meaningful contributions toward a greener future.